

FIG. 14—DERIVATIONS OF DAY SIGNS: LAMAT TO CABAN

1. Lahun-Chan Venus God. Dresden 47b.
2. Glyph of Lahun-Chan. Dresden 47b.
3. Glyph for water. Paris 16.
4. Glyph of Lahun-Chan. Chichen 34.
5. Picture of water decorated with jade disks. Dresden 36c.
6. Serpent with jade disks on body and head of God B. Dresden 35b.
7. Xolotl, the canine deity, with symbols of death. Greenstone idol in Stuttgart Museum.
8. Dog playing drum. Madrid 37a.
9. Dog with tips of ears missing. Dresden 13c.
10. Glyph for dog. Dresden 13c.
11. So-called glyph of God C, "the black craftsman, the black creator." Dresden 29c.
12. God C. Dresden 5a.
13. God C in celestial band. Madrid 25.
14. Eb glyph set in deluge. Dresden 74.
15. Ear of jaguar used as day Ocelotl and jagged ear of dog as day Itzcuintli. Fejervary-Mayer 39, 15.
- 16a. Glyph of old goddess. "The red weaver, craftswoman." Dresden 69, E3.
- 16b. Glyph of old goddess. "The red goddess." Dresden 39b.
- 16c. Glyph of old goddess. "The red goddess." Dresden 74.
- 16d. Glyph of old goddess. "The weaver, the craftswoman." Madrid 102d.
17. Goddess Ilamatecutli-Ciuacoatl. Bourbon 28.
18. Goddess I. Dresden 18b.
19. Caban (earth) with plant growing from it. Madrid 24a.
20. Caban (earth) with maize god seated on it. Madrid 24d.
21. God B seated on terrestrial monster with Caban signs. Dresden 30a.
22. Glyph for bee. Madrid 105b.
23. Glyph of Goddess I. Dresden 18b.
24. Glyph of Goddess I. Dresden 16c.
25. Part of terrestrial monster with Caban signs. Pal. Sun.

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

12

11

13

14

15

17

16 a

16 b

16 c

16 d

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25